Sunshine Report

Sir Len Svinth

As the saying goes "it's a great day for the race, the human race" We all trust that the saying fits you as you read the newsletter. A big thank you for the certificate I received at the last meeting. I guess growing old has some good things. I do look forward to visiting with all of you each month.

On another subject, I received a call from Jack Krout's son, Terry. He thanks us for the members who attended the memorial service and to inform us that we are invited to attend the internment. It will be on October 7th at the military portion of the Petaluma Cemetery. The time is 9 AM.

Take good care, see all soon.

Little SIR Report

Sir Jerry Pozo

Good Morning Brothers & Fellow Petalumans. Our monthly meetings are attended well, and we are all reacquainting ourselves with each other and our stories.

On September 20th, we will have a talk by Kristie Hubacker, CEO of Sonoma-Marin Fair and Board Member Michael Parks, a 5th generation agriculturalist in both Marin and Sonoma Counties. Bring your questions or issues and discuss with them during/after the meeting.

Ok, we had a few men that wore a "Wild-type Shirt" to our luncheon meeting, thanks! But here's a challenge to you...wear a Wild-Type shirt and be able to tell us "The Story" behind it. I'll bet that brings back a lot of good memories.

Keep thinking of potential future guest speakers that would appeal to us. Slip me an email, text or corral me at the meeting with info.

Our local history library & museum will have Saturday morning @ 10:30 downtown walking tours with period attired docents. Learn a little more about buildings on our historic register and downtown district. Free for All – like the library. Come for a leisurely promenade of our town – 90 minutes.

DATE TO REMEMBER: Friday December 2nd will be our Ladies Luncheon. Can anyone recommend a vocal or music group to play? Or other entertainment please let me know.

We'll see you at our next luncheon.

We had 40 in attendance for our August meeting. Thank you Sirs who attended, and thank you for letting us know whether or not you will be attending. I think we all enjoyed our Guest speaker and hopefully some of you followed up on how to save $$ on monthly phone and internet charges. We welcomed another new member Richard Gosser into the club. Let's give a Big Thank You to Bill Tennyson for bringing in another member. I think you would all agree that getting out for lunch once a month with friends is enjoyable and relaxing. I would encourage you to bring a friend to a monthly lunch.
